

Details and restrictions related to course registration [2017–2018]
<Undergraduate Schools>

Schools	Minimum number of class hours or credits required in a half-year term	Maximum number of credits possible in a half-year term	Can students in an English-based program take courses from the Japanese-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their Japanese language ability [such as JLPT scores]) required?	Can students in a Japanese-based program take courses from the English-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their English language ability [such as TOEFL scores]) required?	Can students take courses from different graduate or undergraduate programs within their affiliated schools ?	Can students take courses open to the entire university or courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools? (If so, the maximum number of registered credits in a half-year term should be specified.)
						Note 1: Undergraduate students cannot take courses intended for graduate students. Graduate students cannot take courses intended for undergraduate students, in principle. Note 2: Restrictions apply. For details, please inquire during your academic orientation. [GEC: Global Education Center] [CJL: Center for Japanese Language] <Ref : GEC web page> http://www.waseda.jp/inst/gec/en/	Courses open to the entire university (e.g. GEC courses and CJL courses) Courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools
Schl Political Science and Economics [Japanese-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit. 20 credits per half-year term is a rough limit.		Yes. Language certificate is not required.	Yes	Yes	Yes
Schl Political Science and Economics [English-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit. 20 credits per half-year term is a rough limit.	Yes. Language certificate is not required.		Yes	Yes	Yes
Schl Law	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes	Yes
Schl Humanities and Social Sciences/Culture, Media and Society	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes	Yes
Schl Education	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	44 credits for the primary education major and the Science Course, 40 credits for other than above.				Yes No maximum number is set.	Yes No maximum number is set.
Schl Commerce [Japanese-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	24 credits		Yes. Language Certificate is not required. The recommended level is TOEFL score of 620 or more or a TOEFL(IBT) score of 61 or more.		Yes No maximum number is set.	Yes No maximum number is set.
Schl Commerce [English-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	24 credits	Yes. Language Certificate is not required. The recommended level is either a score of 260 or more for EJU or first grade of JCAT.			Yes No maximum number is set.	Yes No maximum number is set.
Schl Social Sciences [Japanese-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.		Yes Certificate of English language proficiency is not required.		Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.	Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.
Contemporary Japanese Studies Program(CJSP) [English-based Program]	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.	Yes (J-CAT level 6 or higher)			Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.	Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.
Schl Human Sciences/Sport Sciences	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.	Yes. Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.

Details and restrictions related to course registration [2017–2018]
<Undergraduate Schools>

Schools	Minimum number of class hours or credits required in a half-year term	Maximum number of credits possible in a half-year term	Can students in an English-based program take courses from the Japanese-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their Japanese language ability [such as JLPT scores]) required?	Can students in a Japanese-based program take courses from the English-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their English language ability [such as TOEFL scores]) required?	Can students take courses from different graduate or undergraduate programs within their affiliated schools ?	Can students take courses open to the entire university or courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools? (If so, the maximum number of registered credits in a half-year term should be specified.)
Schl Fundamental Science and Engineering [Japanese-based Program]	10 hours or more per week (excluding intensive courses) are required.	A maximum of 20 credits in one semester.		No	No. <FYI> Courses offered by the School of Science and Engineering that may be taken are as follows: 1) Group A Courses (only if there are spaces left during the 3rd registration period) 2) Group C Courses offered by the host department that are open to exchange students Note: No permissible to take seminars, courses related to graduation theses, research or experimentation, or courses so designated by the department. [Ref. URL] http://www.waseda.jp/fsci/en/students/registration/#anc_15	Only GEC courses and CJL courses are permissible.	No
Schl Creative Science and Engineering [Japanese-based Program]
Schl Advanced Science and Engineering [Japanese-based Program]
Schl Fundamental Science and Engineering [English-based Program]	10 hours or more per week (excluding intensive courses) are required.	A maximum of 20 credits in one semester.	No		No. <FYI> Courses offered by the School of Science and Engineering that may be taken are as follows: 1) Group A Courses that are opened to exchange students 2) Group C Courses offered by the host department that are open to exchange students Note: No permissible to take seminars, courses related to graduation theses, research or experimentation, or courses so designated by the department. [Ref. URL] http://www.waseda.jp/fsci/en/students/registration/#anc_15	Only GEC courses and CJL courses are permissible.	No
Schl Creative Science and Engineering [English-based Program]
Schl Advanced Science and Engineering [English-based Program]
Schl International Liberal Studies (SILS)	Undergraduate school courses: 8 CJL courses: 6 *1	Undergraduate school courses: 14 CJL courses: 7	Yes			Yes	No

【SILS】*1: Number of required credits for Japanese courses differs depending on the result of the J-CAT test.
 Students at J-CAT level 1～5・・・Required to take 6 credits of Japanese courses.
 Students at J-CAT level 6・・・Required to take 3 credits of Japanese courses (another 3 credits are exempted).
 Students at J-CAT level 7 or above・・・ Not required to take Japanese courses.

For more information on courses available for registration, the number of credits and curricurm, please visit:
http://www.waseda.jp/sils/en/student/oneyear/Important_Notes_for_SP3.pdf
http://www.waseda.jp/sils/en/student/oneyear/SP3_Curriculum_20150319.pdf0

Details and restrictions related to course registration [2017–2018]
＜Graduate Schools＞

2016/10/21

Schools	Minimum number of class hours or credits required in a half-year term	Maximum number of credits possible in a half-year term	Can students in an English-based program take courses from the Japanese-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their Japanese language ability [such as JLPT scores]) required?	Can students in a Japanese-based program take courses from the English-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their English language ability [such as TOEFL scores]) required?	Can students take courses from different graduate or undergraduate programs within their affiliated schools ?	Can students take courses open to the entire university or courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools? (If so, the maximum number of registered credits in a half-year term should be specified.)
						Note 1: Undergraduate students cannot take courses intended for graduate students. Graduate students cannot take courses intended for undergraduate students, in principle. Note 2: Restrictions apply. For details, please inquire during your academic orientation. [GEC: Global Education Center] [CJL: Center for Japanese Language] <Ref : GEC web page> http://www.waseda.jp/inst/gec/en/
G.S. Political Science	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.	Yes Japanese language proficiency is not required. After arriving in Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.	Yes Japanese language proficiency is not required. After arriving in Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.		Yes	Yes
G.S. Economics	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.	Yes Certificate of Japanese language proficiency is not required. After arriving in Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.	Yes Certificate of English language proficiency is not required. After arriving in Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.		No	No
G.S. Law	Minimum of 2 credits for Graduate School of Law courses. However, 10 hours or more per week are recommended.	Up to 32 credits in total per year				Only CJL courses are permissible.	No
G.S. Letters, Arts and Sciences	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Only CJL courses are permissible.	No
G.S. Commerce	Minimum of two credits for Graduate School of Business courses. However, totalling 10 hours or more per week are recommended.	16 credits for the half-year term (22 credits for a year)	Yes Certificate of Japanese language proficiency is not required. However, after arriving in Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.	Yes Certificate of English language proficiency is not required. However, after arriving to Japan, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.		No	No
G.S. Business and Finance [WASEDA Business School]	Minimum of two credits for Graduate School of Business and Finance courses. However, totalling 10 hours or more per week are recommended.	40 credits per year (excluding CJL courses)	Yes Certificate of Japanese language proficiency is not required. However, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.	Yes Certificate of English language proficiency is not required. However, the approval of the supervisor is necessary.		No	No
G.S. Fundamental Science and Engineering	No minimum number is required if registered for research guidance (compulsory).	20 credits per semester	No	No	No	Only CJL courses are permissible.	No
G.S. Creative Science and Engineering	No minimum number is required if registered for research guidance (compulsory).	20 credits per semester	No	No	No	Only CJL courses are permissible.	No
G.S. Advanced Science and Engineering	No minimum number is required if registered for research guidance (compulsory).	20 credits per semester	No	No	No	Only CJL courses are permissible.	No

Details and restrictions related to course registration [2017–2018]
<Graduate Schools>

2016/10/21

Schools	Minimum number of class hours or credits required in a half-year term	Maximum number of credits possible in a half-year term	Can students in an English-based program take courses from the Japanese-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their Japanese language ability [such as JLPT scores]) required?	Can students in a Japanese-based program take courses from the English-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their English language ability [such as TOEFL scores]) required?	Can students take courses from different graduate or undergraduate programs within their affiliated schools ?	Can students take courses open to the entire university or courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools? (If so, the maximum number of registered credits in a half-year term should be specified.)
						Note 1: Undergraduate students cannot take courses intended for graduate students. Graduate students cannot take courses intended for undergraduate students, in principle. Note 2: Restrictions apply. For details, please inquire during your academic orientation. [GEC: Global Education Center] [CJL: Center for Japanese Language] <Ref : GEC web page> http://www.waseda.jp/inst/gec/en/	Courses open to the entire university (e.g. GEC courses and CJL courses) Courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools
G.S. Education	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	Up to 36 credits per year. Up to 8 credits in the case of taking courses outside of one's affiliated major «Only for "Specialization in Advanced Teacher Training major"» Up to 39 credits per year for graduate school courses (only elective courses are permissible except for the educational practice thesis course, in principle).				Yes 4 credits
G.S. Social Sciences	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.		Yes (No need to submit a certificate of English language proficiency.)		Yes Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.	Yes Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.
G.S. Human Sciences/Sport Sciences	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.	Yes Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.
G.S. Asia-Pacific Studies (GSAPS)	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.	Yes Certificate of Japanese language proficiency is not required.	Yes Certificate of English language proficiency is not required.		Yes Credits obtained cannot be applied for course completion.	Yes
G.S. Japanese Applied Linguistics (GSJAL)	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes.	Up to 4 credits during period of study
G.S. Information, Production and Systems (IPS)	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes. No particular rule about the upper limit on registered credits.	Yes Private consultation may be necessary depending on circumstances.
G.S. Accountancy	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	24 credits				Yes Up to 4 credits per year.
G.S. Environment and Energy Engineering	10 hours or more per week are recommended.	No particular limit.				Yes Credits obtained cannot be applied for course completion.	Up to 4 credits for 2 courses in total from other graduate schools.
G.S. International Culture and Communication Studies (GSICCS)	If research guidance is not taken, a minimum of one International Culture and Communication Studies course must be taken.	Up to 14 credits for courses, in principle (excluding CJL courses)	Courses at GSICCS are provided in English in principle. However, there might a case where both Japanese and English are used in some parts of research guidance and seminars.			Not permissible in principle. However, it may be permissible if the approval of the instructor is obtained.	Not permissible in principle. However, it may be permissible if the approval of the instructor is obtained.

Details and restrictions related to course registration [2017–2018]
<Japanese Language Program>

2016/10/21

Schools	Minimum number of class hours or credits required in a half-year term	Maximum number of credits possible in a half-year term	Can students in an English-based program take courses from the Japanese-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their Japanese language ability [such as JLPT scores]) required?	Can students in a Japanese-based program take courses from the English-based program? (If so, are documents which prove their English language ability [such as TOEFL scores]) required?	Can students take courses from different graduate or undergraduate programs within their affiliated schools ?	Can students take courses open to the entire university or courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools? (If so, the maximum number of registered credits in a half-year term should be specified.)
						Note 1: Undergraduate students cannot take courses intended for graduate students. Graduate students cannot take courses intended for undergraduate students, in principle. Note 2: Restrictions apply. For details, please inquire during your academic orientation. [GEC: Global Education Center] [CJL: Center for Japanese Language] <Ref : GEC web page> http://www.waseda.jp/inst/gec/en/
Center for Japanese Language (CJL)	13 credits	CJL courses: 14. Courses open to the entire university and courses offered by other schools: 4 credits(2 courses)				Courses open to the entire university (e.g. GEC courses and CJL courses) Courses offered by other undergraduate or graduate schools